As an assisted living Executive Director (ED), you are charged with minimizing risk and preventing legal liability. But in practical terms, do you understand the legal framework that affects your day-to-day decisions?

Join Hinshaw attorneys—experienced in defending assisted living communities and their directors—for a webinar primer on community member and employment legal pitfalls. We will walk through scenarios you face daily to explain the laws governing your facilities and provide practical tips to help avoid potential pitfalls.

Who Should Attend

This webinar is designed for Executive Directors and Assistant Executive Directors of Assisted Living Facilities in California.
