Robert Finley to Speak on Medicaid Liens and Premises Liability Claims at the 2023 CLM Annual Conference in Tampa, Florida

March 30, 2023

JW Marriott Tampa Water Street, Tampa, Florida

Hinshaw partner Robert Finley will co-present on "A New Threat: Beware of Medicaid Liens in Your Premises Liability Claims" at the 2023 CLM Annual Conference in Tampa, Florida, on March 30, 2023. In June 2022, the United States Supreme Court ruled that Florida Medicaid may seek reimbursement from settlement amounts representing payment for medical care, past or future—a decision that will affect claims, risk, and litigation management professionals. A comprehensive analysis of the case, the implications of its legal precedence, and practical advice for dealing, negotiating, or litigating with a Medicaid enrollee will be discussed.
