in its acquisition of six separate competing companies, a Hong Kong company in its sale of its private label drapery hardware business to a U.S. competitor, and a Canadian company in its acquisition of a U.S. manufacturer of water valves. In addition, David was a part of the Hodgson Russ team of attorneys that completed the following transaction:

Hodgson Russ attorneys represented senior management in their purchase of a leading full-service grocery retailer in upstate New York, northern Pennsylvania, and western Vermont. The grocery retailer operates 155 full-service supermarkets and has more than 15,000 associates. Hodgson Russ also represented the senior management group in the financing of this purchase.

Assisted with general corporate matters, such as NDAs, non-competes, supply agreements and other commercial contracts, and mergers and acquisitions matters for a U.S.-based supermarket chain.

A team of Hodgson Russ attorneys led by John J. Zak represented long-time client, Integer Holdings Corporation (NYSE:ITGR), in a $1.7 billion acquisition of Lake Region Medical, a privately held portfolio company of KKR. The purchase price consisted of cash (including assumed debt) and unregistered shares of common stock. Financing was through a bank/bond package, consisting of a $1.6 billion credit facility (TLA/TLB/ revolver) and $360 million of senior notes offered under Rule 144A. Hodgson Russ counseled on every aspect of the transaction, performing U.S. and supervising international due diligence; negotiating the merger agreement and related acquisition documentation; advising on U.S. competition law matters, including preparing Hart-Scott-Rodino and related foreign filings; negotiating the bank credit facility and leading the high-yield note offering; and advising on executive compensation and employment law aspects of the transaction. The Hodgson Russ team consisted of attorneys Craig M. Fischer, Cristin L. Murray, Matthew R. Scherer, and David G. Reed (securities regulation and corporate compliance); Robert B. Fleming, Jr. (antitrust and trade regulation); Christofer C. Fattey and Timothy Ho; Ryan M. Murphy and Richard W. Kaiser (employee benefits); Peter C. Godfrey (labor and employment); and Michael J. Hecker (environmental); and paralegals Courtney Scanlon, Deborah Kalstek, and Betsy Mills.
