

HOW THE U.S. ELECTION MAY AFFECT CROSS-BORDER BUSINESS IN 2013 AND BEYOND

Seminar

Toronto, ON
November 15, 2012

November 15, 2012
Toronto, ON

St. Andrew's Club & Conference Centre
150 King Street West, 27th Floor, Toronto, Ontario
3:30-5 p.m.

Registration begins at 3 p.m.
Cocktail reception immediately follows the presentations.
This seminar is complimentary and seating is limited.

Who should attend: Attorneys, in-house counsel, CEOs, CFOs, COOs, presidents, owners, accountants, business risk managers, financial planners, and investment advisors

TOPICS

- Doing business in the United States: Will anything change?
- Public and private offerings in the United States: Join the crowd
- U.S. business and tax structures: Lots of options, but will tax rates still be high?
- Protecting your business and managing risks in the United States: Don't get sued, get smart
- Investing in U.S. real estate for pleasure and profit
- U.S. trade and the buzz from Washington

Plus a special report from TSX and TSX Venture Exchange:

Global opportunities in energy, mining, and infrastructure
Robert Peterman, director, global business development

Attorneys

George Eyd
Kenneth Friedman
Kevin Gluc
Michael Maxwell
Marla Waiss

Practices & Industries

Canada-U.S. Cross-Border
Corporate & Business