

WORKING IN THE UNITED STATES AFTER GRADUATION: WHAT EVERY EMPLOYER & FOREIGN STUDENT NEEDS TO KNOW

Seminar
Buffalo, NY
June 9, 2010
Event Sponsor: Hodgson Russ

Practices & Industries

Immigration

June 9, 2010
Buffalo, NY

Wednesday, June 9, 2010
4:30 – 5:30 p.m. (Registration at 4:15 p.m.)
Buffalo Niagara Partnership
The Knox Room, 665 Main St., Buffalo, NY
Networking reception to follow

Are you a foreign national graduating with a professional degree? Do you want to work in the United States? Are you an employer looking to hire a foreign national? Join experienced professionals from Freed Maxick & Battaglia, Hodgson Russ, and Mollot & Hardy for a practical discussion of the immigration, financial, and tax issues related to the employment of foreign nationals in the United States.

Topics:

- Next steps in the immigration process
- Initial strategies of financial planning for foreign nationals and their employers
- Understanding tax compliance issues for foreign nationals in the United States

Who should attend: Foreign National students graduating with professional degrees, human resource professionals, employers, professional recruiters, international student services professionals, student career center professionals, and other interested parties