

HODGSON RUSS SEMINAR: CURRENT TRENDS IN IRS AND NEW YORK STATE ENFORCEMENT EFFORTS FOR TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

Seminar

Hodgson Russ, The Guaranty Building, 140 Pearl Street, Buffalo, NY
November 13, 2018
8:30 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

November 13, 2018

Hodgson Russ, The Guaranty Building, 140 Pearl Street, Buffalo, NY

Join members of Hodgson Russ's Tax-Exempt Organizations Group and Special Guest Speaker, Melissa H. Thore, Assistant Attorney General, New York State Office of the Attorney General – Charities Bureau, for an interactive discussion on Current New York State and IRS Enforcement Efforts for Tax-Exempt Organizations.

Speakers: Melissa H. Thore, Catherine B. Eberl, Marla Waiss, William S. Turkovich

Topics:

- The Role of the NYS Attorney General
- IRS Enforcement Efforts and Private Benefit/Excess Benefit Transactions
- Endowments – Managing Donor Restrictions and Fund Modifications

Who should attend: Executives and leaders in the Nonprofit/tax-exempt industry, including Executive Directors, CEOs, CFOs, Comptrollers, CCOs, General Counsel, and other members of nonprofit organization teams.

Continental breakfast will be provided.

This seminar is complimentary.

1 hour of CPE available. CLE credit requested.

Click here to RSVP by November 9 and include your name, company, address, and email.

This invitation may be extended to members of your boards of directors and staff.

Attorneys

Catherine Eberl

William Turkovich

Marla Waiss

Practices & Industries

State & Local Tax

Tax-Exempt Organizations