Wage & Hour

December 13, 2018

This webinar on wage and hour matters reviewed some of the most recent and challenging issues facing home care providers. Topics covered included an update on 24-hour live-in litigation and developments from pending cases, enforcement issues and trends, common mistakes found in home care Office of the Medicaid Inspector General (OMIG) and Department of Labor (DOL) audits, and joint employment issues that are arising in the Consumer Directed Personal Assistance Services program fiscal intermediary context. Hodgson Russ attorney Emina Poricanin shared lessons gleaned from wage and hour lawsuits in home care and how providers can protect themselves from such claims.
