Trish Sandison and Emina Poricanin recently presented at the New York Council of Nonprofits, Inc. (NYCON) Camp Finance 2019 event in New Paltz, NY. The firm was also a networking reception sponsor of this event.

Trish's presentation was titled "Board Governance Overview with a Special Emphasis on Audit Oversight Obligations."

Emina's presentation was titled "How to Comply with the Newest Employment Law Changes." Camp Finance is a retreat designed for executive directors, financial staff, board members, practitioners, fundraisers, marketing communications staff and development staff. The event focuses on recent developments and best practices relating to nonprofit accounting, accountability, compliance fundraising, communications and nonprofit governance.
