5:00 - 6:15 p.m.

Event Sponsor: NYSBA

September 30, 2020

Mike Hecker moderated a law student career day webinar hosted by NYSBA's Environmental & Energy Law Section. In the session, panelists discussed Environmental and Energy Law as a broad-based practice, with different substantive areas of law, covering opportunities from public to private sector. The discussion was led by environmental and energy practitioners from public, non-governmental, and private sectors speaking on career trajectories, daily activities, and advice regarding those interested in pursuing this type of career, followed by a Q&A session.
