

BANKING OPTIONS FOR YOUR US SUBSIDIARY

Webinars

December 8, 2020

9am - 10am EST / 16:00 – 17:00 EET

Event Sponsor: Baltic American Chamber of Commerce / Hodgson Russ

December 8, 2020

Click here to view a recording of this presentation.

Password: Banking2020

Join the Baltic American Chamber of Commerce and Hodgson Russ LLP for a roundtable discussion to learn about US banking and corporate formation options from banking and legal professionals. We plan to discuss:

- How can a European company open a bank account for its US subsidiary?
- Can you open a bank account if the US company is operated from Europe?
- Are there any alternative banking solutions for European companies?
- How do you form a US subsidiary quickly?

Panelists:

- Nathaniel Lucek, Partner at Hodgson Russ LLP
- Justas Jonikas, VP Head of Transaction Services, New York, Large Corporations & Financial Institutions at SEB bank NYC
- Tristan McDermott, Relationship Banker at Chase Bank, N.A. [TBC]
- John Kancans, President at JAK Consultants LLC, former global head of AML for US Bank, GE Capital, AIG and head of AML for Deutsche Bank Asset Management US
- Alicea Castellanos, CPA, TEP, N.P. at Global Taxes LLC

Attorneys

Nathaniel Lucek

Practices & Industries

Europe-U.S. Cross-Border