

SPECIAL EDUCATION UPDATE

Contingency Planning and the Provision of FAPE

Webinars

December 4, 2020

9:00 - 10:00 a.m.

December 4, 2020

Join attorneys in the Hodgson Russ Special Education Practice as they provide important updates for school districts relating to their legal responsibility to provide a free appropriate public education (FAPE) and Contingency Learning Plans for Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) for students with disabilities during the COVID-19-related pandemic.

Topics to be discussed:

- Federal vs. State Guidance
- Provision of IEP Programs and Services, including Contingency Planning
- Delivery of FAPE and Compensatory Education/Services
- Instructional Model – Change in Mode or Manner
- The Role of CSE/CPSE relative to “contingency planning”
- Pendency implications for “contingency planning”

CLE and CTLE credit pending

REGISTER HERE

Attorneys

Ryan Everhart

Andrew Freedman

Lindsay Menasco

Practices & Industries

Education

Special Education