David J. Wilks will be speaking at an AILA Web Seminar on September 19, 2023. David will be joined by immigration attorneys around the country to present on, "Specialized Knowledge and L-1B Practice Today: 'I Know it When I See it, But How do I Prove It?'" During the session, topics will include: Understanding the elements of L-1B qualifying employment and relationships; Documenting and proving specialized knowledge claims through statute and regulations, agency guidance, and case law; Choosing filing strategies given the differences in adjudication trends among consular blanket Ls, port-of-entry applications, and USCIS filings; and Worksite considerations for new offices, third-party locations, and remote work.
