

DISPARATE IMPACT DISCRIMINATION CHALLENGE

Successfully appealed and obtained reversal of the lower court's and Appellate Division's affirmance of a grant of partial summary judgment on liability entered against City in complex Human Rights Law discrimination case. The matter involved a disparate impact discrimination challenge to firefighter promotional eligibility lists created pursuant to New York's Civil Service Law.

Attorneys

Jason Markel

Practices & Industries

Business Litigation