

SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDED PUBLIC BENEFIT CORPORATION FROM SERIES OF ADMINISTRATIVE CHALLENGES

Successfully defended public benefit corporation from series of administrative challenges, an Executive Law § 316 complaint, and a CPLR Article 78 proceeding commenced by contractor seeking to challenge a non-responsiveness bid disqualification on a construction project due to non-compliance with minority, women, and service-disabled veteran business enterprise utilization requirements under N.Y. Executive Law § 313 and associated regulations.

Attorneys

Jason Markel