

STATE AND FEDERAL WETLAND IDENTIFICATION AND PERMITTING

Hodgson Russ attorneys work with wetlands consultants in the identification of state and federal wetlands and associated permitting requirements in conjunction with facility expansions and transactions. Our work in this area has included a successful challenge to the state's initial determination of the existence of state wetlands on a client's property, allowing the development of a portion of the client's site.

Attorneys

Paul Meosky

Practices & Industries

Environmental