

REPRESENTATION OF MUNICIPALITY IN CREATION OF CLUSTER SUBDIVISION

Hodgson Russ represented a municipality in creating a cluster subdivision that significantly increased open space and reduced area drainage issues. In recent years, Hodgson Russ has also successfully represented the municipality's board and zoning board of appeals in crafting and defending decisions authorizing telecommunications facilities, use variances, subdivisions, site plans, and special use permits.

Attorneys

Daniel Spitzer

Practices & Industries

Municipal

