

FINANCING NONPROFIT AND PRIVATE OFFICE BUILDINGS

Hodgson Russ represents an industrial development agency in a significant development involving a major hospital in the financing of a $60 million office tower that will be occupied by nonprofit tenants and for-profit tenants. The project presents a number of issues, including the allocation of tax-exempt financing for the project and the use of a payment in lieu of taxes (PILOT) agreement relating to the for-profit portions of the office tower

Attorneys

A. Joseph Scott III

George Cregg

Nadene Zeigler