

ASSISTING CANADIAN STARTUP EXPANSION INTO THE UNITED STATES

A team of Hodgson Russ attorneys assisted a Canadian start-up company with their expansion plans into the United States. The matter required a full range of specialties including immigration, tax, corporate, technology, and intellectual property. Our services included preparing and prosecuting trademark applications, forming a beneficial U.S. corporate structure, preparing agreements with vendors and users, and researching the U.S. patent landscape.

Attorneys

Alfonzo Cutaia

Practices & Industries

Business Tax

Canada-U.S. Cross-Border

Intellectual Property & Technology

International Tax