

$20 MILLION SALES TAX REFUND CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF HOTEL CLIENTS

Client Type: Publicly traded

Hodgson Russ represented major hotel chains in litigation against the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance concerning more than $20 million in refund claims for sales taxes paid on reimbursements related to hotel loyalty and rewards points programs.

Attorneys

Christopher Doyle

Joseph Endres

Joshua Lawrence

Timothy Noonan

Practices & Industries

Hotel, Hospitality & Lodging

State & Local Tax

Tax Controversy