

JOSEPH L. BRACCIO ASSUMES LEADERSHIP OF HODGSON RUSS'S EMPLOYMENT, BENEFITS, AND IMMIGRATION PRACTICE AREA

January 4, 2011

Hodgson Russ LLP is pleased to announce that Joseph L. Braccio will serve as the practice area leader (PAL) for the law firm's Employment, Benefits, and Immigration Practice Area.

This practice area oversees the firm's Employee Benefits, Labor & Employment, and Immigration Practice Groups. The firm has five practice areas, each overseen by a PAL, and they are the primary business units of the firm. The other four practice areas are Business, Litigation, Real Estate & Finance, and Tax.

Gary M. Schober, president and CEO of Hodgson Russ, said, "In addition to being an extraordinary attorney, Joe has significant managerial talents, which will ultimately benefit our clients as well as the rest of the firm. I look forward to working with him as the newest member of our management team."

Since 1986, Mr. Braccio has counseled private sector employers on the full range of labor and employee relations issues with particular concentration in contract negotiations, contract administration, arbitration, representation of employers before the NLRB, strike management, and employee discipline and discharge cases. Mr. Braccio's extensive experience includes representing private employers in a variety of economic sectors including industrial manufacturing, health care, construction, high-technology, and service. He also regularly counsels employers on wage and hour issues, prevailing rate problems, and employment discrimination. In addition to serving as a PAL, Mr. Braccio leads the firm's Labor & Employment Practice Group.

Attorneys

Joseph Braccio

Practices & Industries

Labor & Employment

