

JACQUELYN TRUSSELL JOINS HODGSON RUSS'S NEW YORK OFFICE

February 22, 2007

Hodgson Russ LLP is pleased to announce that Jacquelyn Trussell has joined the firm's Business Litigation Practice Group.

Ms. Trussell received her B.A., magna cum laude, from Boston University and her J.D., cum laude, from Loyola University Chicago School of Law. Prior to joining Hodgson Russ, Ms. Trussell was a franchise litigation associate for a mid-size firm in New Jersey. She also worked as a law clerk for the Securities and Exchange Commission and as an extern for Federal Magistrate Judge Schenkier in Chicago, IL.

With more than 230 attorneys practicing in all major areas of law, Hodgson Russ is among the 200 largest law firms headquartered in the United States. Recently, the firm tripled its roster of New York City-based attorneys to provide an even wider range of services and increased depth in important niche practice areas, including federal, multi-state, New York State, and local tax; bankruptcy and corporate reorganizations; intellectual property; estates and trusts; litigation; commercial real estate; corporate and securities; immigration; employment law and employee benefits; and health law. Established in 1817, Hodgson Russ is among the oldest law firms in the United States. Hodgson Russ has two offices in New York, New York, and offices in Albany, Buffalo, and Johnstown, New York; Boca Raton and Palm Beach, Florida; and Toronto, Ontario.

####

Practices & Industries

Business Litigation

