

WITH MORATORIUM STILL IN PLACE, FRANKFORT OFFICIALS DEVELOPING NEW SOLAR PROJECT REGULATIONS

Times Telegram
November 20, 2020

Dan Spitzer is working with members of the Town Council of Frankfort, NY, to formulate a new law that would dictate solar project regulations within the town. Last year, the town instated a project moratorium to institute a new law in place before lifting it. Successfully lifting the moratorium would be the first step toward allowing a developer to move ahead with a proposed community solar farm in the town. Read the entire article here.

Attorneys

Daniel Spitzer

Practices & Industries

Municipal

