

GRAND ISLAND: ZONING REVISIONS PROPOSED TO LIMIT WAREHOUSE SIZE

Grand Island Dispatch September 6, 2023

Charles Malcomb was recently quoted and mentioned in a Grand Island Dispatch article titled, "Grand Island: Zoning Revisions Proposed to Limit Warehouse Size." The article addressed residents' ongoing concerns over the development of large-scale warehouses in their community and the Town Council's decision to temporarily limit the size of such projects until a public hearing can be held.

Chuck, acting as the Town's attorney, explained the process and outlined the next steps that will take place.

Read the full article here.

Attorneys

Charles Malcomb

www.hodgsonruss.com