

HODGSON RUSS ATTORNEY LUCEK NAMED SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE BELGIAN-AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Press Release
November 27, 2018

Nathaniel W. Lucek was recently named Secretary General of the Belgian-American Chamber of Commerce. Nathaniel is an attorney with the law firm of Hodgson Russ and assists European companies with corporate and intellectual property legal matters as they relate to expanding into the U.S. Specifically, he has helped startups and mid-sized corporations from Belgium, the Czech Republic, Finland, France, Germany, Latvia, and Lithuania grow their U.S. businesses and develop their global patent portfolios. Besides helping obtain patent and trademark protection, Nathaniel's work with European companies includes corporate formation, sales agreements, joint development agreements, and intellectual property licenses. He is a member of the firm's blockchain and cryptocurrency, startup, and cleantech practices, where he frequently counsels emerging companies about intellectual property, contract, and corporate issues. The Belgian-American Chamber of Commerce (BelCham) offers a variety of services to address the specific needs of its members and community, including students, young professionals, start-ups, scale-ups, and industry-leading corporations. Those services range from providing office space, hosting events and trade missions, and providing J-1 visa program and career services.

Attorneys

Nathaniel Lucek

Practices & Industries

Europe-U.S. Cross-Border