

HODGSON RUSS ANNOUNCES EIGHT NEWLY ELECTED PARTNERS, FIVE ATTORNEYS PROMOTED TO SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Press Release
January 8, 2019

The law firm of Hodgson Russ LLP is pleased to announce the following attorneys have been elected to the firm's partnership, effective January 1, 2019.

They are:

Jill A. Apa – Jill focuses her practice on U.S. immigration law, including business related non-immigrant (temporary) and immigrant (green card) matters. Jill has successfully handled employment-based cases for foreign nationals in a wide variety of industries, including health-care, information technology, engineering and manufacturing, and professional sports.

Nathan W. G. Berti – Nate, a second-generation estates and trusts lawyer, concentrates his practice in all aspects of estates and trusts law. He helps clients construct complex estate plans, often with a multi-generational, multi-jurisdictional (including international), and creditor protection focus, and counsels fiduciaries and beneficiaries on all aspects of estate and trust administration, including contested matters.

Carmine J. Castellano – Carmine handles a wide variety of litigation, including financial services, intellectual property, bankruptcy, general commercial, and ADA matters. His practice also includes the representation of clients in litigation involving auto dealer management software.

Craig M. Fischer – Craig has represented domestic and international corporate clients in a range of industries on a variety of business transactions and general corporate issues, with a particular focus on public and private securities offerings, compliance with the U.S. securities laws, investment management matters, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance issues.

Nathaniel W. Lucek – Nathaniel assists clients with intellectual property, contract, and corporate matters. Much of Nathaniel's practice focuses on patent law, including the preparation and prosecution of patent applications, due diligence projects, and opinion work. Nathaniel also works with European companies expanding into the U.S.
