George Cregg, Jr. was honored with the Brian T. McMahon Lifetime Achievement award for excellence in Community-Based Economic Development at the 2019 NYS Economic Development Council Awards Banquet, held May 22, at the Otesaga in Cooperstown, NY. The award is presented in recognition of a lifetime of service in the economic development world. Throughout his 48-year career, George has left an indelible mark on NYSEDC. He has worked with the NYSEDC staff for more than 30 years on legislative initiatives, drafted proposed legislation, and participated in advocacy sessions with the New York State Senate and Assembly and the Executive Chamber. He has also served as a resource to countless IDA directors and staff throughout his career.
