November 30, 2022

Hodgson Russ LLP is pleased to announce the launch of its State & Local Tax (SALT) Practice’s new podcast, “State Tax Talks with Joe Tantillo.” Each month, attorneys from the SALT Practice will join Joseph F. Tantillo to discuss the numerous nuances of New York State’s intricate tax laws.

In Episode One, parts 1 and 2, Hodgson Russ Chairman Emeritus Paul R. Comeau and current Chairman Mark S. Klein give insight into how and why New York State’s tax laws were created and what it meant for businesses, residents, and attorneys throughout the state and country. Mark and Paul discuss their early years as tax attorneys in New York, where, at the time, the lack of state guidance and existing precedent allowed them the opportunity to help shape state and local tax law and practice. Mark and Paul have been at the forefront of the SALT practice since its inception, and they provide insight into how they built their impeccable reputation for successfully handling tax cases.
