A member of Plunkett Cooney's Detroit office, Linda L. Haugh provides paralegal support primarily to members of the firm's Transportation Law Practice Group.

Ms. Haugh focuses her practice primarily in the areas of first- and third-party motor vehicle negligence. She also provides assistance with product liability matters. She is involved in a number of cases where her responsibilities include summarizing depositions and medical records, indexing records, large file document production and file management. Ms. Haugh's expertise includes reviewing documents for attorneys and providing extensive, detailed written summaries, focusing on the critical case information.

Ms. Haugh joined Plunkett Cooney in 1986 as a legal secretary in the firm's Real Estate & Transactional Practice Group, and in 1998 transitioned to the General Liability Practice Group. Prior to her legal career, Ms. Haugh worked as a medical transcriptionist and as a physician's assistant.
