Thomas P. Vincent, President and Chief Executive Officer of Plunkett Cooney, was recently named to the 2021 list of Marquis Who's Who.

Individuals profiled in Marquis Who's Who are selected based on current reference value, including position, noteworthy accomplishments, visibility and prominence in a particular field.

Since 2017, Vincent has served as President and CEO of Plunkett Cooney, which is one of the Midwest's oldest and largest law firms. In this role, he dedicates a significant amount of his time to managing the firm's approximately 150 attorneys and 300 employees in 10 offices across Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. He also focuses on achieving the firm's mission of providing world class service to clients, recruiting and retaining high-quality attorneys and staff, and giving back to the communities in which firm members live and work.

A former senior trial attorney with the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office, Vincent joined Plunkett Cooney in 1985 and became a shareholder four years later. In 1999, he was elected to serve as a member of the firm's Board of Directors, a position he was re-elected to six times before he was elected President and CEO.

Vincent is also one of the firm's most accomplished trial attorneys with clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies to financial institutions, as well as insurance providers. His litigation expertise includes commercial liability, complex disputes, class actions and employment liability.

Licensed to practice in Michigan's state and federal courts, Vincent's professional affiliations include the Oakland County Bar Association, State Bar of Michigan, American Bar Association and American Association for Justice. He is a member of the board of directors for the Detroit Regional Chamber. Vincent received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law (currently Michigan State University College of Law) in 1981 and his undergraduate degree from Wayne State University in 1977.
